

Photo: Rijksmuseum van Oudheden, Leiden

RMO-NIT Fellowship 2019

The National Museum of Antiquities (RMO) and the Netherlands Institute in Turkey (NIT) offer a new fellowship for innovative, critical research on museums and collections.

Graduate students and recent graduates (MA and PhD) of universities in the Netherlands are eligible to apply.

The NIT provides accommodation for up to two months in Istanbul. The RMO offers the selected fellow a contribution towards living expenses of 2000 euro plus 500 euro for travel expenses between Holland and Turkey.

For details, criteria and application form, please visit www.nit-istanbul.org

Application deadline
June 7, 2019